

Our normal Palm Sunday procession and service is suspended this year, but we have lots of palms and have devised an ingenious way to get them to you! If it is safe for you to come out, we encourage you to drive to St Barnabas between the hours of 9 and 10 AM on Sunday, April 5. Fr David will be there waiting for you (He's the one wearing gloves.) You'll stay in your car, while Father David will hand you palms for your household. Rather than a procession around the church, you can wave your palms as you drive back through the neighborhood or in a procession around your house. Pin them to your front door. We will provide a worship video and the devotion in the home for Palm Sunday that you can join in once you are home again with your palms.

GOOD FRIDAY

For Good Friday, a booklet of the Stations of the Cross can be collected for private devotion from the church office lobby from next Thursday, or on Palm Sunday.

We will observe Easter morning on Sunday, April 12 with a Holy Eucharist broadcast on our YouTube channel, with scripture, hymns, a homily, and the renewal of the baptismal covenant as we proclaim the glorious resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ.
